A pretty wedding was that of Miss Etta Beck and Mr. Victor Martin of Chicago which took place at $:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Beck, 1117 Quincy street, last night. Rev. James P. de Bevers Kaye of the Episcopal church read the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over silk, made empire and trimmed in Irish point lace. The yoke was of lace and there was a wide band of the lace on the skirt. Miss Nell Kirk played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bride's sister, Miss Anna Beck, was maid of honor. She wore a pink chiffon gown and carried pink rose buds. Mr. Warren Chaney was best man. The house was decorated throughout all the rooms in pink and green. In the bay window in the library where the bridal party stood pink rose buds were used with the green and in the dining room there was a large rustic basket filled with roses on the center of the table. Honeysuckle vines were wound about the railing of the stairway. About 75 guests were in attendance.
